

Rights Respecting Schools Ambassadors

Our Rights Ambassadors have helped us to learn that all children have rights under the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child.

Overall we want;

- To work towards gaining our Silver Rights Respecting Schools award.
- To develop class charters and a whole school charter.
- To share information with families of what a Rights Respecting School looks like.
- To create a common language and understanding of children's rights and why they are important.